Bill Parker and his wife Phyllis attend the May 18th Noon meeting. It was great having them both at the lunch so soon after Bill's recent surgery. Bill spoke about his surgery and also shared with the members the next stages of his medical treatments.

We are all wishing Bill and Phyllis the best in dealing with this most difficult situation.

This Year's Raymond H. Hendee Award Winner is Ms. Kara Dabe. Kara is a teacher at Lincoln School. She will be applying the award towards "___" course.

On May 30th, Kara attended our AM meeting and was accompanied by Lincoln School Principal Jim Blouch. In addition, present at the meeting were Mrs. Dorothy Hendee and her son Mark Hendee.

Dr. Sally Pryor stated that Kara was chosen because her course work selection epitomized the principals that Mr. Hendee most believed in.

Our congratulations to Kara!

For the Gourmet in all of us a meal to make your mouth _____. See the last page for this recipe.

Yield:

4 main dish servings

El Chirper TacosIngredients:

2 tablespoons butter or peanut oil
1/2 pound newly emerged cicadas
2 serrano chilies, raw, finely chopped
1 tomato, finely chopped
1 onion, finely chopped
1/2 tsp ground pepper or to taste
1/2 tsp cumin
3 tsp taco seasoning mix
1 handful cilantro, chopped
Taco shells, to serve
Sour cream
Shredded cheddar cheese
Shredded lettuce

Directions

1. Heat the butter or oil in a frying pan and fry the cicadas for 10 minutes, or until cooked through.
2. Remove from pan and roughly chop into 1/4-inch cubes/ Place back in pan.
3. Add the chopped onions, chilies and tomato, season with salt, and fry for another 5 minutes on medium-low heat.
4. Sprinkle with ground pepper, cumin, and oregano to taste.
5. Serve in taco shells and garnish with cilantro, sour cream, lettuce and cheddar cheese.
